Subject: Preparation of 2019 Tax Returns for Operation Second Chance Inc

Operation Second Chance Inc:

This letter confirms and specifies the terms of our engagement with you and clarifies the nature and extent of the services we will provide. We will perform our services in accordance with the Statement on Standards for Tax Services issued by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. In order to ensure an understanding of our mutual responsibilities, we are asking all clients we prepare tax returns for to confirm the following arrangements by signing this letter and returning it to us.

Our records indicated that we prepared the following income tax returns for you for 2018:

2018 US Income Tax Return
2018 State(s) Income (and Personal Property, if required) Tax Returns

We will not prepare any individual tax returns for 2019 except those identified above without your authorization to do so. If you wish to engage us to prepare other tax returns or provide tax advice, please contact our office to discuss these additional services.

We will prepare your 2019 federal and state income tax returns from the information which you furnish to us. We will not audit or otherwise verify the data you submit, although it may be necessary to ask you for clarification of some of the information.

It is your responsibility to provide all the information required for the preparation of complete and accurate returns. You should retain all the documents, cancelled checks, and other data that form the basis of income and deductions. These may be necessary to prove the accuracy and completeness of the returns to a taxing authority. You have the final responsibility for the income tax returns. Therefore, you should review them carefully before you sign them.

Unless we are otherwise advised, you confirm that expenses such as meals, travel, entertainment, vehicle use, gifts, and related expenses for your business are supported by necessary records required by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). At your request, we are available to answer your questions and advise you on the types of records required.

Our work in connection with the preparation of your income tax returns does not include any procedures designed to discover fraud, embezzlement, or other irregularities should any exist. We will render such accounting and bookkeeping assistance determined to be necessary for the preparation of the income tax returns. Should you desire us to perform special procedures specifically designed to uncover fraudulent actions, we would be pleased to provide such services as a separate engagement.

We will use professional judgment in resolving questions where the tax law is unclear or where there may be conflicts between the taxing authorities' interpretation of the law and other supportable positions. Unless otherwise instructed by you, we will resolve such questions in your favor whenever possible. If the IRS or state tax authorities should later contest the position taken, there may be an assessment of additional tax, interest, and penalties. We assume no liability for any such additional tax, interest, and penalties or other fees and assessments.

The unextended filing due date for your tax return is May 15, 2020. If possible, please send you tax information to us no later than April 15, 2020. Any additional documents we request of you after we have received and reviewed your information, must be received by us no later than thirty days prior to this filing due date to allow for the timely preparation of your tax returns. Tax returns not filed by the due date may be subject to late filing and late payment penalties.

We expect to begin the preparation of your return upon receipt of your tax documents by our office. If upon review of these materials it comes to our attention that you may be obligated to file additional tax returns, we will notify you of this and ask you to contact us to discuss this.

You agree that in the event of unresolved tax issues or delays in processing, or if we do not receive all of the necessary information on a timely basis, it may become necessary to apply to extend the due date for your returns. Applying for an extension of time to file may extend the time available for a government agency to undertake an audit of your return or may extend the statute of limitation. In the event you owe taxes in excess of the amounts withheld from your income and/or the estimated tax payments made, penalties and interest will be owed on your unpaid taxes after May 15.

To the extent you wish to engage our firm to apply for extensions of time to file tax returns on your behalf, you must notify us of this in writing. Our firm will not file these applications unless we receive either a signed copy of this engagement letter or your express written authorization to do so. In some cases, your signature may be needed on such applications prior to filling. Failure to timely file for an extension of time to file can result in penalties for failure to file tax returns, which accrue from the original due date of the returns, and can be substantial.

Federal, state, and local taxing authorities impose various penalties and interest charges for non-compliance with tax law, including for example, failure to file or late filing of tax returns and underpayment of taxes. You as the taxpayer remain responsible for the payment of all taxes, penalties, and interest charges imposed by taxing authorities.

Your returns may be selected for review by the taxing authorities. Any proposed adjustments by the examining agent are subject to certain rights of appeal. In the event of such government tax examination or audit, we will be available upon request to represent you and will render additional invoices for our time and expenses. Our fees for services will be based upon the amount of time required at standard billing rates plus expenses. We will also require you to sign an engagement letter describing these services before we perform them.

IRS regulations now require us to electronically file your return unless you specifically request that we prepare a paper return for you to file. If you desire to file a paper return, the IRS requires us to obtain a signed and dated statement from you to this effect.

In the interest of facilitating our services to you, we may send data over the internet, or store electronic data via computer software applications hosted remotely on the internet, or allow access to data through third-party vendors' secured portals or clouds. Electronic data that is confidential may be transmitted or stored using these methods. We may use third-party service providers to store or transmit this data, such as providers of tax return preparation software. In using these data communication and storage methods, our firm employs measures designed to maintain data security. We use reasonable efforts to keep such communications and data access secure in accordance with our obligations under applicable laws and professional standards.

You recognize and accept that we have no control over the unauthorized interception or breach of any communications or data once it has been sent or has been subject to unauthorized access, notwithstanding all reasonable security measures employed by us or our third-party vendors. You consent to our use of these electronic devices and applications and submission of confidential client information to third-party service providers during this engagement.

It is your responsibility to inform us if you directly or indirectly hold any interest or signatory authority in any assets located in a foreign country. Based upon the information you provide, this information will be used to calculate any applicable foreign tax credits. We will also use this data to inform you of any additional filing requirements, which may include Form FinCen114, Report of Foreign Bank and Financial Accounts (FBAR). Failure to file required forms can result in the imposition of both civil and criminal penalties, which can be significant. These are not tax returns and their preparation is not within the scope of this engagement. If you ask us to prepare these forms, we will delineate the additional charges for this service.

As part of your federal income tax return, you are required to report the maximum value of specified foreign financial assets, which include financial accounts with foreign institutions and certain other foreign non-account investment assets that exceed certain thresholds. In some but not all cases, this filing obligation may overlap your FBAR filing obligations. You are responsible for informing us of all foreign investments so we can properly advise you as to your FBAR and income tax return filing obligations.

The potential exists for conflicts of interest in any engagement. In the event that we in our sole discretion believe that a conflict has arisen affecting our ability to service your account in accordance with either the ethical standards of our firm or the ethical rules of our profession, we may be required to suspend or terminate our services.

CPAs have been and continue to be bound by professional standards of confidentiality that are more stringent than those required by law. We will protect your right to privacy.

In accordance with our firm's current policy on document retention, we will retain copies of the records you have provided and our work papers for your engagement for a period of seven years. After that time, our work papers and files will no longer be available. Physical deterioration or catastrophic events may shorten the availability of our records. The working papers and files of our firm are not a substitute for your records.

We may discuss with you our views regarding the treatment of certain items or decisions you may face. We may also provide you with information in an email. Any advice or information delivered orally or in an email (rather than through a memorandum delivered as an email attachment) will be based upon limited research and a limited discussion and analysis of the underlying facts. Additional research or a more complete review of the facts may affect our analysis and conclusions.

Due to these limitations and the related risks, it may or may not be appropriate to proceed with any decision solely on the basis of any oral or email communication. You accept all responsibility, except to the extent caused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of Bechanan & Company, LLC, for any loss, cost or expense resulting from your decision (i) not to have us perform the research and analysis necessary to reach a more definitive conclusion and (ii) to instead rely on an oral or email communication. The limitation in this paragraph will not apply to an item of written advice that is a deliverable of a separate engagement. If you wish to engage us to provide formal advice on a matter on which we have communicated orally or by email, we will confirm this in a separate engagement letter.

Our professional fee for the services outlined above is based upon the complexity of the work to be performed and our professional time to complete the work. Additionally, this fee is dependent on the availability, quality, and completeness of your records. In the event you fail to timely provide us with records that we request, or if the records you provide are incomplete or unusable, we reserve the right to terminate the engagement without completing our work. If we can assist you in preparing needed records, we will contact you to discuss the problem, the additional work needed, our fees for such work, and the anticipated delay in completing our engagement before rendering further services.

After the preparation of your return, we will bill you separately for any additional work you request. This includes items such as correspondence with the IRS and other tax authorities, amending returns for corrected 1099s and W-2s and the preparation of W-2s and 1099s for you.

We will bill you for our professional fees and expenses as of the date we deliver our work product to you. Payment is due within 30 days of the date on the billing statement and becomes delinquent if not paid within 30 days of the invoice date. If there are outstanding billings of over 30 days, we will not start your work. If in-progress billings are not paid within 30 days of the invoice date, at our election, we will stop all work until your account is brought current, or we will withdraw from this engagement. You acknowledge and agree that we are not required to start or continue work in the event of your failure to pay on a timely basis for services rendered as required by this engagement letter. You further acknowledge and agree that in the event we do not start work, stop work or withdraw from this engagement as a result of your failure to pay on a timely basis for services rendered as required by this or previous engagement letters, we shall not be liable to you for any damages that occur as a result of our ceasing to render services.

We reserve the right to withdraw from the engagement without rendering services for any reason, including but not limited to, if the tax organizer is not returned fully completed and signed, or if documents requested in the organizer or by our office are not timely provided to our firm. Further, we reserve the right to withdraw from this engagement without completing the returns if you fail to comply with the terms of this engagement letter, if you disagree with our recommendations regarding tax return filing and reporting obligations, tax return positions to be taken or disclosures to be made in the returns, or if we determine professional standards require our withdrawal for any other reason.

In the unlikely event that differences concerning our services, fees or other terms of the engagement should arise that are not resolved by our mutual agreement, we agree to first try in good faith to settle the dispute by mediation administered by the American Arbitration Association (AAA) under Rules for Professional Accounting and Related Services Disputes. All unresolved disputes shall then be decided by final and binding arbitration in accordance with the Arbitration Rules for professional Accounting and Related Services Disputes of the AAA. Fees charged by any mediators, arbitrators, or the AAA shall be shared equally by all parties. In agreeing to arbitration, we both acknowledge that in the event of a dispute, each of us is giving up the right to have the dispute decided in a court of law before a judge or jury and instead are accepting the use of arbitration for resolution.

We are rendering our services in the State of Maryland and the terms of this engagement will be governed by the laws of Maryland.

If the preceding fairly sets forth your understanding, please sign this letter in the space indicated and return it to our office. Providing us with your tax information signifies your acceptance of the terms of this engagement letter even if you do not sign and return it. We want to express our appreciation for this opportunity to continue to work with you.

We appreciate your confidence in us. Please call (301)869-3747 if you have questions.

Sincerely,

Nancy Bechanan
